

Tailored audiences

These advertisers have included you in one or more tailored audiences. Tailored audiences are often built from email lists or browsing behaviors. They help advertisers reach prospective customers or people who have already expressed interest in their business.

You can opt out of tailored audiences and other interest-based advertising in your personalization and data settings. Find them at twitter.com/personalization. This will change the ads you see on Twitter, however it won't remove you from advertisers' audiences.

Similar audiences

Twitter has included you in one or more audiences that are similar to tailored audiences for the advertisers below. Twitter creates these audiences in order to increase advertisers' reach. You may be included in these audiences based on similarities between your account and the accounts included in tailored audiences.

You can stop seeing ads based on these similar audiences by opting out of interest-based advertising in your personalization and data settings. Find them at twitter.com/personalization. This will change the ads you see on Twitter, however it won't remove you from these audiences.
